

The role of the body in virtual reality

24 April 2017, 10.00–17.00h
Research Hub (Building 19, room 272)

Start	Title & speaker
10.00	"Disorders, body representations and virtual reality" Stephen Gadsby (Philosophical Psychology, Macquarie)
11.00	"Touching the virtual: Bodies in VR technologies" Anne Cranny-Francis (Cultural Studies, UTS)
12.00	– Lunch –
13.30	"Teledildonics and rape by deception" Rob Sparrow (Philosophy, Monash University)
14.30	"Anywhere but here: Teenage boys, baby monkeys and the emergence of a haptic aesthetic in art" Jan Guy (Ceramic Artist and Arts Lecturer at USyd)
15.30	– Afternoon tea –
16.00	"Unanticipated virtual experiences" Hamish Macdougall (Psychology VR-lab, USyd)
17.00	– Drinks –

[www.facebook.com/
uowphilosophyresearch](https://www.facebook.com/uowphilosophyresearch)

[http://www.uowblogs.com/
uowphilosophy/research](http://www.uowblogs.com/uowphilosophy/research)

UNIVERSITY
OF WOLLONGONG
AUSTRALIA

Australasian
Association of Philosophy

